WSGR
Campus News
December 6, 1949

Yesterday afternoon Major Eleanore C Sullivan of the Regular Army spoke to a group of Smith students on "The Army as a Career for Women," In her discussion she included the requirements, the training, and the duty for college graduates in the Regular Army and also the possibility of holding Reserve commissions. Members of the WAC serve in all parts of the world.

An important vocational lecteure will be given tomorrow at five o'clock in the Conference Hall of the Alumnae House. The topic is Graduate Study. The lecture will be given by Miss Meribeth E. Cameron, the Assistant Dean of Mount Holyoke College. All members of the senior and junior classes are invited and urged to attend the meeting. Miss Cameron will be glad to answer questions following her talk.

------

Tryon Art Gallery is still selling Christmas cards and suggests that you get these reproductions of various masterpieces soon. Coming from Smith's private collection, the cards include two works concerning the nativity scene and one of the journey into Egypt.

------

Miss Cynthia Walsh of the Hampshire Bookshop will present another of her alternate weekly discussions of News and views of NewwBooks" on December 13. Keep this program in mind at 9:45 for a complete coverage of doings in the field of newly published literature.

---****---

Any students who are interested in having any of their own work in painting, drawing, wngraving, or sculpture put into a collgge show and sold for Scads, are asked to leave it in The Studio Club in the basement of Graham Hall by Wednesday afternoon, December 7th.

******----

There will be a meeting of The Religious Association Seminar on Religion and Marriage tomorrow afternoon at four-thirty in Davis, third floor, A.

Mr. Andrews of the First Congregational Church will speak on the attitudes of the main religious groups in the United States toward marriage, divorce, and the religious education of children. Everyone is welcome.

----******----

The First United States Civil Service Region comprising New England has announced an examination for Junior Scientist in the fields of physics and chemistry. It is of interest to students of the sophomore, junior, and senior classes and to graduate students. Sophomores and juniors may be appointed by Student Aid Trainee positions for the summer at a salart of $2650 and $2875 a year.

mind at 9:45 for a complete coverage of doings in the field of newly published literature.

Any students who are interested in having any of their own work in painting, drawing, engraving, or sculpture put into a college show and sold for Scads, are asked to leave it in The Studio Club in the basement of Graham Hall by Wednesday afternoon, December 7th.

There will be a meeting of The Religious Association Seminar on Religion and Marriage tomorrow afternoon at four-thirty in Davis, third floor, A.

Mr. Andrews of the First Congregational Church will speak on the attitudes of the main religious groups in the United States toward marriage, divorce, and the religious education of children. Everyone is welcome.

The First United States Civil Service Region comprising New England has announced an examination for Junior Scientist in the fields of physics and chemistry. It is of interest to students of the sophomore, junior, and senior classes and to graduate students. Sophomores and juniors may be appointed by Student Aid Trainee positions for the summer at a salary of $2650 and $2975 a year.

They are given leave from their positions to return to college and may be reappointed for the following summer or permanently upon graduation. Seniors are eligible for appointment at a salary of $3100 a year and graddate students at a salary of $3825 a year. To apply Card Form 5000 AB must be filed not later than December 20, 1949. A written examination will be held in Northampton at an unannouced date early in the year. Full announcements and applications are available at the Vocational Office in College Hall.

The United States Civil Service Commission has announced another examination for Physical Science Aid in chemistry, physics, geology, mathematics and other branched of physical science. The positions to be filled are in Washington, D.C. and throughout the United States. The beginning salary is $2152 to $2974. The examination will be given in Northampton and applications must not be filed later than December 13. They should be sent to the United States Civil Service Commission, Washington, D°C. Forms may be obtained from the Vocational Office.

The New York State Civil Service examination for Professional and Technical Assistant will be held January 14, 1950. This examination is open to seniors and graduate students who have been a resident of New York State since 1949. All candidates will have the same three hour examination consisting of tests in verbal abilities, quantitative ~~reasoning~~ abilities and abstract reasoning. A score of 75 is passing. An additional three hour exam will be given for Junior Management assistant with and entrance salary of $2760.. To apply

They are given leave from their positions to return to college and may be reappointed for the following summer or permanently upon graduation. Seniors are eligible for appointment at a salary of $3100 a year and graduate students at a salary of $3825 a year. To apply Card Form 5000 AB must be filed not later than December 20, 1949. A written examination will be held in Northampton at an announced date early in the year. Full announcements and applications are available at the Vocational Offices in College Hall.

The United States Civil Service Commission has announced another examination for Physical Science Aid in chemistry, physics, geology, mathematics and other branches of physical science. The positions to be filled are in Washington, D.C. and throughout the United States. The beginning salary is $2152 to $2974. The examination will be given in Northampton and applications must not be filed later than December 13. They should be sent to the United States Civil Service Commission, Washington, D.C. Forms may be obtained from the Vocational Offices.

The New York State Civil Service examination for Professional and Technical Assistant will be held January 14, 1950. This examination is open to seniors and graduate students who have been a resident of New York State since 1949. All candidates will have the same three hour examination consisting of tests in verbal abilities, quantitative abilities and abstract reasoning. A score of 75 is passing. An additional three hour exam will be given for Junior Management assistant with and entrance salary of $2750.. To apply you should obtain application blanks and other necassary forms from the Vocational Office. These must be in the hands of the New-York State Civil Service by December 10, 1949. Last year the examination was given in Northampton and it is hoped that this will be the case again.

-----**-----

Bjorn Kjellstrom, President of the Swedish Ski Association, will show Ski and Orienteering films taken in Sweden. Included in the films will be the"Ssport of Orienteering" in color and sound; "The Sofia Girls" a well known group of trainees and hikers in the mountaims; and "Training Methods in Cross-country Skiing," the last two silent and in color.

*****-----

The Religious Association is sponsoring a lecture by Dr. Hyla S. Watters of the class of 1915. A medical missionary in China, her subject will be #Twenty-five Years in China." The lecture will take place tomorrow evening at seven-thirty in the Browsing Room.